Customer Reviews

In preparation for our first vacation in Napa and Sonoma, I ordered this book. It was just what I needed to know. It proved very accurate in it's content. Very much worth using for those new to wine country vacations.

I love the Eyewitness guides, use them EVERYWHERE. But the 'Top 10' is really frustrating. I have to make my own lists and write out where everything is because it's hard to tell where in wine country things are, or plan out my days based on location. It would be pretty tough to go from one side to the other in a single day so be very helpful if the book focused more by section (as shown on inside flap) than as a general area.

Obviously a very difficult book to write, owing to the myriad choices required. I had hoped for a bit broader approach, but having lived in the wine country, I should have known that there are easily a top twenty-five or more things to see and do when there.

I buy these books for each trip I make. They are perfect for a long weekend trip. They hit the highlights without too much detail and are small enough to carry around in your handbag for quick reference. I never go without them.

I love travel guides, and I love being able to use them on my iPad with the Kindle app. I also really enjoy the DK series of guides, and this one is great. Well organized, helpful contact info, and some great pix. I would recommend any of their guides for any destination!

Only Napa and Sonoma. Don't be fooled into thinking this book includes anything else. Nice if that's what you are looking for!

I love DK books! I normally purchase the printed copy, but bought several when the kindle version was on special. I was disappointed that the maps were so tiny on the kindle. I cannot find a way to increase the size of the images to make them useful.

This book is just a way for DK Eyewitness to make extra money. It is almost garbage. It is essentially a list of the vineyards in wine country.
