The 7.62x25 Tokarev: A Classic Russian Design, And A Classic Cartridge

Synopsis

>>>The TT-33 Tokarev was the official service sidearm of the Red Army for almost twenty years. The design of this weapon is as Russian as Borsch. It is as austere and rugged as can be. Oddly it is loosely based upon the design of American inventor John Browning married to a cartridge designed by the Mauser Boys. Learn how easy it is to replace a firing pin in this weapon. Learn how to field strip the gun, clean it, inspect it, and more. About the Author...>Scroll up and grab a copy TODAY...

Customer Reviews

I rated this book 4 stars because it wasn't as in depth as I would like. It's great for the new owner or curious person wanting a basic understanding but does not go into any extra detail. There are a ton of cool facts missing in this book. It could use more pictures too. Basically it's nothing more than a field manual.

Mediocre.. nothing here you can't find online for free... not much depth or history....
