Customer Reviews

This little book is a blockbuster! It is packed with scriptural insights which will increase your faith and change the way you approach the throne of grace. The Lord does not want His children to be covetous. Nor does He want them to be lacking for those things they need and want for their lives and for His work. "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." The children of the King are not beggars. But there is one who comes to steal, kill, and destroy. Over the enemy the Lord has already provided victory - triumph! Hagin declares war on the enemy of our souls, our families, and our God. So do we as believers and make a claim of faith in the goodness, graciousness, and mercy of our God. All of heaven and the riches in Christ Jesus are at the disposal of the believer. What a change this knowledge will make in the lives of the faithful! Hagin is not indulging in some private interpretation but is illuminating the Word of God in truth and in power for all who would believe.

My car had overheated on June 29, 2009 and I needed another car. I had not told anyone at church what we were praying for. On the internet I had seen a beautiful red Cadillac that was customized with a white coach top, but sadly it was not for sale. I prayed that July night, "Oh God, if I could ever find a car like that, I'd surely buy it!" On Sept. 3, 2009, our pastor's wife led the ladies prayer group and she walked us through these 4 steps in Kenneth Hagin's minibook, How God Taught Me About Prosperity. We ladies didn't share with each other what each had specifically spoken out and believed for. 11 days later my "dream car" shows up on my husband's ebay page. He asked me if I'd like this car. I was astounded that there was even another car like the one that was still not for sale, just a show car. I jumped at the chance. Not only did we win the bid, but the seller even knocked $900.00 off our bid...unheard of! The wisdom in this book is for believers. Doubt and do without.

Thank God for this Prophet's insights and understanding concerning God's will to prosper his people. All throughout the Bible God's desire for his people has been only good. He has never been the one holding back His blessings. False teaching and religious tradition have been the thieves of our prosperity.

There is a great deal of controversy in the Body of Christ about the "prosperity gospel" - not an accurate description of what is being taught - but Rev. Kenneth Hagin, as usual, writes clearly and accurately to establish the truth and dispell the falsehoods. "Prosperity" in scriptural terms is not just about finances - although certainly finances is a part of prosperity - but being blessed means to prosper in all things. Blessed means to be empowered to prosper. That includes prospering in your personal life and family life as well as in your profession. The "prosperity gospel" is not materialism under a spiritual cover. Not at all. If you have any questions about this area of Christianity, read this excellent book. Hagin is grounded in the scripture and answers all questions about it.

This Book calls out those things that were missing in my life. They all seem so simple that I just didn't get it before. This book was recommended by a friend when I went to see here for Credit repair. It turns out my scores were almost 100 points better than I thought. The words in this book are empowering and backed up by scripture. So if you need your faith restored or need to be able to believe in God and his word for your Financial well being, this is a great way to kick it off. And it's a quick page turner. I call you Blessed! ™• •

This is a tiny book which is full of powerful principles that can totally impact your life and change the course of your life if you read it prayerfully and with an open mind. Brother Hagin shares personal stories and scripture to remind us that God is a loving Father and desires for His people to be abundantly blessed so they can bless others. I have been studying the word of God and the principles that Brother Kenneth Hagin shares are in line with scripture. This book is not just a name it, claim it, get what you can kind of book. It is written from a Pastor's heart who has seen lack and wants to share the wisdom he has learned with all Christians, not so they can become self centered and fat, but so they can have resources to help others in time of need, and pay their bills, and feed their families. Believe me there is no glory in not being able to provide for your own family. I would encourage you to read this book prayerfully and ask the Lord to direct your steps.

The book was written in a way that was easy to understand. I was impressed with the transparency and truth from which the author spoke, which made it very easy to receive the revelation that was shared. It was short and to the point, and provided a realistic example to follow coming straight from the Word of God. I thank God for leading me to this book when I questioned Him about my finances. Now I know why He wanted me to read it. I would recommend this book to anyone who is seeking God's way when it comes to finances.
